TIMOTHY REDMOND Conductor

Timothy Redmond has been principal conductor of the Cambridge Philharmonic since 2006. He is a regular guest conductor with the London Symphony, Royal Philharmonic and Hallé Orchestras and has conducted opera in New York, St Petersburg and Covent Garden.

He recently conducted the world premiere of a new opera, The Golden Ticket, which is based on Roald Dahl's Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. It turned out to be one of his favourite jobs ever - because not only was the music very good, but there was free chocolate at the rehearsals!
